Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information request: FOI2025/00356

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request received on the 29 March in which you requested the following:

Your request:

Dear UK Research and Innovation,

For the recent "UKRI-Southeast Asia collaboration on infectious diseases" call for which there were 93 applications, can you tell me

- 1. Which UK institutions were the lead applicants for these 93 applications?*
- 2. How many awards are or will be made?*
- 3. Which UK institutions are or will be in receipt of these awards, please?*

Our response

I can confirm that UK Research and Innovation (UKRI) holds some information relevant to your request. Please see the information below.

We have previously published a response for this competition here¹. As noted at the time of your previous request, this competition is still ongoing and therefore this information is not held.

If you resubmit your request after April 2025, it is likely the outstanding elements for this competition will have been finalised.

Please note that although there are 93 applicants in total, only those that are successful in their bid for funding will be subject to public disclosure.

Any information about "unsuccessful applicants", would be considered as "Confidential Information"; organisations and individuals apply for funding in confidence and with the expectation that their bid information, including their applications, will be kept in confidence. These expectations are set out in the 'Confidentiality' section of Use of Grant Proposal & Training Grant information addendum²

If you have any queries regarding our response, please do let us know. If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review, explaining which elements of this decision you disagree with and why.

Internal review requests should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of our response and should be addressed to:

Head of Information Governance

Email: foi@ukri.org

Please quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are still not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may apply to refer the matter to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review procedure provided by UKRI. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: www.ico.org.uk.

If you wish to raise a complaint regarding the service you have received or the conduct of any UKRI staff in relation to your request, please see UKRI's complaints procedure³.

Yours sincerely,
