Dear [REDACTED],

Freedom of Information request: FOI2023/00012

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request received on the 17 January in which you requested the following:

Your request:

As per my records, Workday and TotalMobile contracts have expired. I would like to know whether these contracts are still valid or replaced by any other supplier.

If all the information besides the contract dates are the same, I am happy to just receive an update on the contract dates

Our response:

I can confirm that UK Research and Innovation (UKRI) holds some information relevant to your request. Please see the information below.

The Workday contract, referenced in your previous request FOI2021/00424 has been replaced by a new contract with Workday. As this information is already in the public domain and therefore reasonably accessible to you by other means it is exempt under Section 21 of the FOI Act. The details of the contract can be found here¹.

As was advised in our previous response, no information is held on any contract with TotalMobile.

If you have any queries regarding our response or you are unhappy with the outcome of your request and wish to seek an internal review of the decision, please contact:

Please quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are still not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may apply to refer the matter to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the review procedure provided by UKRI. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: www.ico.org.uk.
